

SECOND REVIEW, VOLUME II, LESSONS 1-5

1. Mr. Green had much anger (a) for the company head (b) who wanted to build a large two-family home (c) that would be two-times (d) the size of other houses in the area.
2. However, he tried to be smoothly polite (e), so that he wouldn't be called a not-in-my-backyard kind of person (f).
3. The inhabitant (g) of the new house, who was paralyzed from the neck down, (h) flew a three-colored flag (i).
4. After Greg wrote a three-part story (j) about the dangers (k) a rabbit faced every time he crossed a double-lane (l) highway, he was flooded (m) with fan mail.

YOU SUPPLY THE CORRECT PUNCTUATION FOR THE FOLLOWING SENTENCE, AND WATCH FOR SPELLING ERRORS, TOO.

5. If you will shine this three-legged stand made of metal I put under a hot dish (n) for me I'll give you one-fourth of a dollar (o) said Mom Alright I replied I'll shine it but only if youll pay me four times (p) my allowance next year answered Janie

-----

CHOOSE YOUR ANSWERS FROM THE FOLLOWING LIST.
BE SURE YOU USE THE CORRECT FORM OF EACH WORD.

Achilles heel	denizen	ire	rube goldberg
acronym	dermatitis	joie de vivre	sacred cow
affluent	dermatologist	lame duck	simulate
anonymous	double	maximum	statute
antonym	dual	multilingual	suave
ATM	dubious	multiple	survive
authentic	duo	multipurpose	tendonitis
berate	duplex	multitask	to the max
candid	epidermis	multitude	trident
candor	eponym	NIMBY	trilogy
canvass	eulogy	obsolete	triplicate
capital	euphemism	pachyderm	trivet
caption	euphoria	panacea	twilight
carnage	FYI	peril	twill
carnivore	glass ceiling	pseudonym	viable
CEO	grass roots	quadrant	vigilant
convivial	heteronym	quadruple	vivacious
crocodile tears	homonym	quarter	vivid
dark horse	inundate	rhinitis

1. Since I had a really runny nose, (a) I did not get close to the very rich (b) person who had a cure-all plan (c) for bringing the old park back to life. (d)
2. I planned to join the from-the-ground-upwards (e) movement and to ask my neighbors (f) if they were going to vote for the candidate who spoke many languages (g) but who was not expected to win. (h)

YOU SUPPLY THE CORRECT PUNCTUATION FOR THE FOLLOWING SENTENCE.

4. Duane who gave a very moving praising speech (i) for the woman who was in her last term of office (j) commented Joan worked very hard but did not remain alive (k) long enough to enact more laws. He continued she had great joy of living (l) was able to do many tasks at one time (m) was always very honest (n) in her opinions as well as a merry and festive (o) person.

CHOOSE YOUR ANSWERS FROM THE FOLLOWING LIST.
BE SURE YOU USE THE CORRECT FORM OF EACH WORD.

Achilles heel	denizen	ire	rube goldberg
acronym	dermatitis	joie de vivre	sacred cow
affluent	dermatologist	lame duck	simulate
anonymous	double	maximum	statute
antonym	dual	multilingual	suave
ATM	dubious	multiple	survive
authentic	duo	multipurpose	tendonitis
berate	duplex	multitask	to the max
candid	epidermis	multitude	trident
candor	eponym	NIMBY	trilogy
canvass	eulogy	obsolete	triplicate
capital	euphemism	pachyderm	trivet
caption	euphoria	panacea	twilight
carnage	FYI	peril	twill
carnivore	glass ceiling	pseudonym	viable
CEO	grass roots	quadrant	vigilant
convivial	heteronym	quadruple	vivacious
crocodile tears	homonym	quarter	vivid
dark horse	inundate	rhinitis

SECOND REVIEW, VOLUME II, LESSONS 13-17

1. Dad scolded (a) me for not going to an real (b) skin doctor (c) when my skin (d) became red.
2. I shed a few false tears (e), as he'd really hurt me in my weakest point (f) because he knows I hate going to doctors.
3. We were being extra careful (g) because an unknown name (h) caller threatened to cut off the head of (i) our pet parrot.
4. We put the headings (j) next to all the words spelled the same way but differed in pronunciation (k) we could find.
5. I loved the circus cried Amy. What did you like best I asked. I thought the lions and tigers (l) and elephants (m) were the coolest she replied.

-----

CHOOSE YOUR ANSWERS FROM THE FOLLOWING LIST.
BE SURE YOU USE THE CORRECT FORM OF EACH WORD.

Achilles heel	denizen	ire	rube goldberg
acronym	dermatitis	joie de vivre	sacred cow
affluent	dermatologist	lame duck	simulate
anonymous	double	maximum	statute
antonym	dual	multilingual	suave
ATM	dubious	multiple	survive
authentic	duo	multipurpose	tendonitis
berate	duplex	multitask	to the max
candid	epidermis	multitude	trident
candor	eponym	NIMBY	trilogy
canvass	eulogy	obsolete	triplicate
capital	euphemism	pachyderm	trivet
caption	euphoria	panacea	twilight
carnage	FYI	peril	twill
carnivore	glass ceiling	pseudonym	viable
CEO	grass roots	quadrant	vigilant
convivial	heteronym	quadruple	vivacious
crocodile tears	homonym	quarter	vivid
dark horse	inundate	rhinitis

LESSONS 1-5

- |                   |                   |              |
|-------------------|-------------------|--------------|
| a. ire            | f. NIMBY          | k. perils    |
| b. CEO            | g. denizen        | l. dual      |
| c. duplex         | h. a quadraplegic | m. inundated |
| d. double / twice | i. tricolor       | n. trivet    |
| e. suave          | j. trilogy        | o. quarter   |
|                   |                   | p. quadruple |

“All right,”

5. “If you will shine this trivet (n) for me, I’ll give you a quarter (o),” said Mom. “~~Alright~~, I replied, “I’ll do it but only if you’ll quadruple (p) my allowance next year,” answered Janie.

LESSONS 7-11

- |                |                 |                  |
|----------------|-----------------|------------------|
| a. rhinitis    | f. canvass      | k. survive       |
| b. affluent    | g. dark horse   | l. joie de vivre |
| c. panacea     | h. multilingual | m. multitask     |
| d. reviving    | i. eulogy       | n. candid        |
| e. grass roots | j. lame duck    | o. convivial     |

4. Duane, who gave a very moving praising speech (i) for the woman who was in her last term of office, (j) commented, “Joan worked very hard but did not remain alive (k) long enough to enact more laws.” He continued, “She had great joy of living. (l) was able to do many tasks at one time, (m) was always very honest (n) in her opinions, as well as a merry and festive (o) person.

LESSONS 13-17

- |                  |                    |               |
|------------------|--------------------|---------------|
| a. berated       | e. crocodile tears | i. decapitate |
| b. authentic     | f. Achilles heel   | j. captions   |
| c. dermatologist | g. vigilant        | k. heteronyms |
| d. epidermis     | h. anonymous       | l. carnivores |
|                  |                    | m. elephants  |

5. “I loved the circus!” cried Amy. “What did you like best?” I asked. “I thought the lions and tigers (l) and elephants (m) were the coolest,” she replied.